A New Year Begins, Help Make it a New Beginning for Our Students

Annual Spring Gala

Did you enjoy the Fall Awards Ceremony as much as I did? With all the mistakes that I made it felt like a Bloopers video. Sometimes a dyslexic's brain just doesn't work well and Saturday at the awards program was one of those days for me! But, it seemed to be a fun time anyway. Speaking of a fun time, please circle the date April 8, 2017 on your calendar. This is the date for our Spring Gala (formally called the Annual Meeting). We will have our annual fun and fund raiser. There will be a dinner, speaker, election of officers and a fabulous silent auction. There will be bargains for all ages to bid on. It really is a lot of fun. By the way, if you are doing some spring cleaning and come across somethings that you no longer want or need, please consider donating these items to the silent auction. We will be glad to give you a receipt for the tax guy, we are a 501(c)3 organization you know. Then on April 8 at 6:00 pm come to All Saints Church with your family and friends for a fun filled evening and perhaps buy a few new treasures to take home. The proceeds from the evening go to the scholarship fund to help needy families to pay the tuition to Saturday School. If you would like to volunteer to help with the Gala, we can always use people to help set up and especially clean up.

If your children need service hours for school, this is a great way to earn them. Tickets to the dinner will soon be on sale. Dinner will be $6.00 for adults and $3.00

Thoughts from the Prez

Hope you had a Merry Christmas and best wishes for a Happy New Year from The Dyslexia Foundation of Memphis. Our Fall Semester ended on Saturday December, 18 with an awards ceremony in the main church. The students always get a big thrill going into the lovely church. Christina and I present awards to all the students, who had perfect attendance and who finished one of our 9 books. Finishing a book is quite an accomplishment and a trophy or medallion is presented to each student who earned it. We had six students who completed a book and were awarded a trophy or medallion. It is such a joy for me personally to be able to give the deserving students these awards. All of the students work so hard at Saturday School and really glow with pride to receive an award.

It never ceases to amaze me at the dedication our students and their parents give to our small foundation. Their gratitude is overwhelming. In so many cases the Dyslexia Foundation has truly saved the lives of the students and their families. We hear over and over that these children's self-esteem was rock bottom when they first started attending our school. That is such a sad statement because so many of our students were only 6 or 7 when they first started attending; and I have personally seen the despair in their faces when I meet them for the first time. The parents' faces are not much better; because fighting with regular schools is an exhausting battle and unfortunately most parents don't know the ground rules. Then they come to us and WOW!, what a difference! The children are smiling and happy because they are learning to read. For some of these children some phycologist or teacher has told them they will never learn to read. Can you even imagine what it is like to be told at 5, 6 or 7 that you are a failure and you will never learn to read? Then to come to a program like ours and boom, you are reading! It is great; it is wonderful. It restores your faith in life to watch these children bloom like a butterfly. I love to use the analogy of the butterfly and I have used is many times but I will use is again for our first time readers or those of you who may not remember.

The butterfly starts life as an egg and then as a humble caterpillar. It then spins itself into a cocoon (chrysalis to be correct) and by all outward appearances looks quite dead. When suddenly by the grace of God it breaks out of the shell (chrysalis) and spreads its wings and is the beautiful butterfly that we all admire. Our children do the very same thing. They are sad, humble children just trying to exist in a very hostile school environment and eventually withdraw into a shell so they won't feel the mean things that teachers, other students and sometimes well-meaning parents (who don't understand their problem), say to them. So their self-esteem drops to rock bottom; when suddenly by God's help they find the Dyslexia foundation and POW! They break out of their shell and start exercising their wings trying to 'fly' and turn into bright, beautiful, self-confident students. It is delightful to watch and those of you who have tutored can agree is a joy to observe. We save children and their parents lives; by giving the support they need to both student and family. Your support and faith keeps us going. Your trust that we can help is what gives us the opportunity to help your child cope with their dyslexia. Please keep supporting and believing in us and in your child. God bless you all. I hope to see you and your child on January 28.

We Now Accept Credit Cards!

The Dyslexia Foundation continues to move forward into the technology age. We are trying to make things easier. You can now pay tuition and make purchases using a credit card. We can take all major credit cards and either email or text you a receipt at the time of your purchase.

Being a tutor for the Foundation often seems an unappreciated task. As a tutor, it is a lot of hard work and very little pay. Being a parent in the program often seems even less rewarding. Not only do you have to tutor, but you also have to pay for that privilege. Your dedication and hard work is a chance to be successful as well as significant. The difference between the two is that when you die, success comes to an end. But when you are significant, you continue to help others be successful long after you are gone. Significance lasts many lifetimes. That's why when I look back over the years spent in the Foundation I see so many lives that have been changed. And that's never going to be un-appreciated. Not well paid, but not unappreciated.

Dyslexia Foundation Chosen by Wells Fargo to be a recipient During their Days of Giving Celebration

For the second year the Wells Fargo Corporation's Cordova office selected the Memphis Dyslexia

Foundation as one of the eleven non-profit organizations in Memphis to receive their Days of Giving Celebration Award. The Foundation was chosen because of its incredible group of individuals who have come together and share the same vision for the organization in providing individual instruction to children with Dyslexia and related learning disabilities, while providing help and support to the parents and family members for the children. The foundation was founded by parents trying to help their own children learn to read and is still run by parents on the board of Directors. They then went on to say, Dyslexia is not limited to just learning but exists in every area of the individual's entire life. The Foundation can be the first step in an individual's life in training themselves to overcome this challenge. The Dyslexia Foundation turns no child away. Any child having a problem learning to read is welcome. The Dyslexia Foundation of Memphis is not only your commitment to your child's remediation but each foundation member's commitment as well. Each child that comes to the foundation realizes they are not the only child with this Gift. That Gift, is the gift of Dyslexia.

We at the Foundation want to thank Wells Fargo and their employees for the recognition they have given to all the tutors, supervisors and staff for all their hard work and dedication to the students they support. db qp

FAIRNESS

"FAIR" does not mean that every child gets the same treatment. "FAIR" means that every child gets what he or she needs.

Richard Lavoie video - "How Difficult Can This Be?"
Executive Director of Riverview School, Cape Cod, Mass.

"The Starfish"
Paraphrased from
"The Star Thrower" by Loren Eiseley

Once upon a time there was a wise man that used to go to the ocean to do his writing.

One day he was walking along the shore. As he looked down the beach, he saw a human figure moving like a dancer. He smiled to himself to think of someone who would dance to the day. So he began to walk faster to catch up.

As he got closer, he saw that it was a young man who wasn't dancing, but instead was reaching down to the shore, picking up something and very gently throwing it into the ocean. As he got even closer, he called out, "Good morning! What are you doing?"

The young man replied, "Throwing starfish in the ocean."

"Why are you throwing starfish in the ocean?"

"The sun is up and the tide is going out. If I don't throw them in, they'll die."

"But, young man, don't you realize that there are miles and miles of beach and starfish all along it? You can't possibly make a difference!"

The young man listened politely, then bent down, picked up another starfish and threw it into the sea, past the breaking waves, and said,

"It made a difference to that one."

There is something very special in each and every one of us, and we must each find our own starfish. We have all been gifted with the ability to make a difference with students who have "differences in learning" ...and if we at the Foundation throw our stars wisely and well...the world of our children will be blessed!

Confessions of an LD Child

I am a learning disability child.

I number one out of every ten children in the school system.

I look the same as everyone else in my classroom.

I am not blind; yet my eyes do not tell me correctly what I see.

I am not deaf; but my ears often distort the information I hear and I cannot rely on them.

I am not physically handicapped; but my coordination is often so bad that I cannot hit a baseball, ride a bike or write with a pencil.

My parents often think that I am lazy because I cannot produce the work that my I.Q. indicates that I should be able to do.

My teachers call me a behavior problem because I cannot sit still for very long and I am distractible in class.

My classmates think that I am dumb because I cannot read or write or do math problems.

I am a misfit in society, for succeeding depends on academic skill and these are the areas in which I cannot achieve.

I am lonely because I often shy away from those who soon know about my school failure and call me "retard."

I choose younger children to play with so that I do not have to compete with them.

My self-esteem is very low...I am afraid to try new tasks after a while because I have failed so much in the past.

I often withdraw into my little shell or act out my hostility trying to tell everyone how unhappy I am. But not many people understand that that's why I act the way that I do.

My future is dismal...If I do not get help, I am a likely candidate for dropping out of school before I am sixteen.

I am a potential juvenile delinquent because I must be accepted by someone; and if the someone is the wrong crowd, then I will choose to join those who will accept me.

I am destined to a trade school even though my I.Q. may exceed 140 because to get into college you must be able to read and write.

I must spend my lifetime in a job that I dislike and a future that is limited because no one reached me soon enough.

I am the boy next door who stays to himself.

I am the girl in Sunday School class who cried when you asked her to write a verse from the Bible.

I am the Boy Scout who dropped out of the troop when he had to read from the Boy Scout Manual.

I am a learning disability child

Who can I turn to for help?
